THIS SOCIETY will receive proposals for Life Assurance, through the undersigned, as its Agent for this City, on terms highly favorable to applicants.

Prospectuses may be had on application, together with blank forms of proposal, and such other information as parties may desire.

The following are among the advantages offered by this Institution:—

The Guarantee of a large capital securely invested.

The peculiar Benefits secured by the principle of the Loan Department.

The payment of Premiums Half-Yearly or Quarterly, by parties assured for the whole term of Life.

Thirty Days are allowed after each payment of Premium becomes due, without forfeiture of Policy.

Part of the Capital is permanently and securely invested in the United States.

Wives may insure the lives of their husbands for their own and the benefit of their children.

The assent of the Society is not necessary to a transfer of the Policy.

For all practical purposes, this Agency is essentially an American Company, strengthened by a large bona fide Capital safely invested in London; equally available to Americans as to British policy holders. All losses are settled by the New York Board, and paid by Bills drawn on the London Office. Thus the Guarantee Fund in New York remains untouched, so that in case any disputes should arise between the society and policy holders, funds are on the spot, subject to the control of our Courts.

Medical Examiners fees are paid by the Society.

IMPORTANT TO THE PUBLIC!

THE following advertisement was published in May, 1849, in the "Boston Daily Times," and various other newspapers in the United States, by James G. Wilson, Esq., the owner of the "Woodworth Patent," shortly after I had advertised my "PATENT STATIONARY CUTTER, PLANING, TONGUEING AND GROOVING MACHINE," throughout the United States:

"PLANING MACHINES.

"I take this method of answering the frequent inquiries, by letter and otherwise, as to my opinion upon the various notices through the papers of the stationary Knife Planing Machines, trumpeted to be palmed off upon several persons ignorant of their true worth. I would state for the information of the enquirers that they will find substantially the machine now offered by several pretending inventors, described in the 10th volume of the Repertory of Arts, invented by Samuel Bentham, in the year 1791. A like machine was patented in this country by one Kugler, some sixteen years since, and another one put up by Albert Richards, of West Troy, N. Y., and abandoned about the same time. It ought to satisfy the public to know that after fifty-eight years experimenting upon these machines, not one has ever been of any value for the purposes contemplated.

I will furnish a Stationary Knife Machine equal to any now in use, or to any offered by the pretending inventors, at the cost of the machine and five per cent for my trouble.
JAMES G. WILSON,
May 19, 1849. Philadelphia."

I deny that any person ever saw or heard of such a machine as mine until I invented the same. Said machine was operated in the month of August, 1848, and no machine before this could do so much work, and do it as well as mine. In reply to the above advertisement, and in order that the public may be assured that I mean what I say, I will offer to pledge ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS against an equal amount from said Wilson, that ONE of my machines will plane, or plane, tongue and groove with less power, as much lumber in the same time, and do it as well, or better than TWO of the "Woodworth" machines. The trial to be made at my Steam Mill, Border St., East Boston, Mass., or at such other place as may be convenient for such a trial.

Salomon De Caus in the Paris Bedlam.

A very effective wood engraving of this subject, presented to the readers of the Magazine this month, is from an original picture by Jacques Lecurieux. This painting appeared in the Louvre in 1845, and was the subject of general admiration as a work of art. During the exhibition it became an object of universal attention, for the interesting history it perpetuates of that inventor [illegible] of discovery which has since made steam so [illegible] an agent in the economy of the civilized world.

[illegible] the private memoirs of the French Court we learn that in 1641 an English nobleman, Edward [illegible], Marquis of Worcester, being in Paris, [illegible] by the celebrated Marion Delorme, while visiting the various places of curiosity [illegible] in that great metropolis. To [illegible] lady, history is indebted for the only authentic account of the interview with De Caus, from whom the Marquis of Worcester learned the theory of steam power which he afterwards published, in 1663, as his own discovery, in a work entitled "A Century of Inventions."

The following translation of a letter from Marion Delorme to [illegible] Marquis De Cinq Mars contains a very explicit account of the interview between De Caus and Worcester, and furnishes the text from which Lecurieux designed his picture.

February, 3, 1641.

[illegible] While you forget me at Narbonne, and [illegible] giving yourself up to the pleasures of the Court and the joy of meeting [illegible] the Cardinal, I, following your wish, do the honors of Paris to your English lord, the Marquis of Worcester, and lead him, or rather he [illegible] from one object of curiosity to another, [illegible] the saddest and most serious, and [illegible] questions, [illegible] their inmost thoughts. To speak [illegible] never contented with the explanations [illegible] objects in the same light with those who show them to him; for instance, on a visit we made together to the Bicetre, where he [illegible] to have discovered a [illegible] in a lunatic! If this maniac had not been raging mad, I verily believe the Marquis would have demanded his liberty and taken him to London, there to hear his follies from morning till night. As we crossed the lunatic quarters and I [illegible] than alive with fear, leaned on my companion, an ugly face showed itself behind the great bars, and commenced crying in a broken voice 'I am not mad! I have made a discovery which will enrich the country that will put it in operation.'

"'Ah,' said I, shrugging his shoulders, 'something very simple, and what you would never guess [illegible] the employment of the vapor of boiling water.'

"I commenced laughing.

"'This man,' continued he, 'is named Salomon de Caus. He came from Normandy four years since to present to the notice of the King a treatise on the marvellous effect that can be obtained by his invention; that is, by steam to propel machines, drive carriages, and do, for aught [illegible], other miracles. The Cardinal dismissed the madman without an audience; but Salomon de Caus, instead of being discouraged, commenced following Monseigneur the Cardinal every where, until he, tired of finding him at his heels, and importuned by his follies, ordered him to be shut up in the Bicetre, where he has now been three years and a half, and where, as you have heard, he cries to every stranger that he is not mad, and that he has made a wonderful discovery. He has even written to prove this book which I have here.'

"My Lord Worcester, who had been all attention, [illegible] the book, and, after having read [illegible], said 'This man is not mad; and [illegible], instead of imprisoning him, they [illegible] riches and honor on him: [illegible].'

"[illegible] he returned sad and pensive.

"'[illegible] in truth crazy,' said he; 'misfortune and captivity have deprived him of reason; [illegible] him mad; and when you threw him into that cell you shut up the greatest genius of the age.'

"After this we left; and since that time the Marquis has continually spoken of Salomon de Caus.

"Farewell, my beloved and faithful Henry; return soon, and in the happiness you now enjoy [illegible] still be some love left for your own Marion Delorme."

The [illegible] of this letter is beyond a doubt, [illegible] among the effects of Henri Coiffier de Ruzé d'Effiat, Marquis de Cinq Mars, [illegible] court intrigues, was beheaded at Lyons in 1642, only one year after the date of [illegible] letter from the celebrated woman [illegible] he had been secretly married.

[illegible] has treated this subject in a very [illegible] style. The scene is well chosen, the [illegible] admirable, and the tableaux beautifully [illegible]. The composition is original, and could not be improved. The head of de Caus is finely [illegible] nobly with the various expressions [illegible] around. The figures of the Marquis and his lovely companion are highly [illegible] the courtly elegance of that luxurious [illegible]. We are indebted to Mr. Lecurieux for the conception of such a work of art, the embodiment and execution of which have served to [illegible] interest in the mournful story of poor de Caus.

We are really believe that Richelieu denied [illegible] with the King. The wily Cardinal had [illegible] schemes enough to consume all the money in his treasury, without assisting a useless theory, even if correct, would call for additional expenditures. But we can find no [illegible] for the incarceration of poor Salomon de Caus.

It is difficult to conceive a more melancholy fate than his. We can imagine the feelings, the aspirations [illegible] of genius, of an author—for he had already published, as early as the year 1615, a work entitled "Les Raisons des forces mouvantes, avec diverses machines, tant utiles que plaisantes"—leaving his provincial home for the great city of Paris, filled with the enthusiasm that had [illegible] him which he had pursued those researches and experiments which finally produced the most successful result that ever crowned the efforts of a student. What disappointment he must have endured when the haughty Cardinal refused him access to the King, and [illegible] that treatise in which were embodied the imperishable ideas that had been [illegible] from the harvest of thought in which he had [illegible] the strength and vigor of his entire manhood! How different from the brilliant [illegible] of his dreams was the realization! Instead of open-handed courtesy and generous cooperation he found repulse and disrespect. In place of a [illegible] with his sovereign, an interview with the congregated savans of the realm, he [illegible] in the Bicetre and the companionship of a maniac! And this too in Paris—Paris, that capital of a country which could at that time already boast of such names as Calvin, Servetus, Descartes, Montaigne, Pascal, and Bossuet!

"Three [illegible] days of labor,
And [illegible] of ease,"

We need not look to France alone for instances of [illegible] neglect towards theories and inventions too grand and magnificent for the comprehensions of the age. Fitch and Fulton were [illegible]

"[illegible] festal cup,

True, our government did not cast them into Bedlam; but it is equally true that it did not encourage them. Was not the first named of these twins of [illegible] genius allowed to drag out a miserable existence amid the doubts and contumelies of our own citizens? Have they not left his remains beside the waters of the Ohio, with no monument save the wild flowers above his grave [illegible] the sound of her perpetual flow. Yet, even now, though unforeseen, that [illegible] has become his most appropriate [illegible]. His prophecy is fulfilled.—Each day, [illegible], at all hours, great argosies, that [illegible] the fleet of Xerxes, pass and repass [illegible] continual procession, keeping [illegible] voices through [illegible] with the constant [illegible].

And poor [illegible] Salomon De Caus!—Does not his memory share in the glory of every invention to which the power of steam is applied? Had he [illegible] half his mind foresaw—the steamers on the Indian and Egyptian seas—the [illegible], regardless of wind or tide, between [illegible] the floating palaces upon our own [illegible] rivers—the railway on the mountain [illegible] richly freighted car—beside the [illegible] within earth's mineral caves—had he foretold these, then might they call him "madman!"

And even now, in the middle of the nineteenth century, there may be [illegible] men who, like De Caus, [illegible] for the [illegible] they bring to the shrine of science. [illegible] Columbus and De Caus were each obliged to wear those chains which ignorance ever forges around the limbs of the sleeping giant Truth, but which, on his awaking, are parted and cast away like threads of flax.

☞ Gov. Doty has favored us with Mr. Bowes' [illegible] Report on Ozaukee Harbor. We transfer it to our columns. It will be observed that reference is made to a diagram drawn to illustrate the project. It did not accompany our copy, so that we cannot give it to our readers, but the practicability and necessity of the improvement of our harbor will be perceived from the report itself.—The aggregate cost is estimated at $92,168.14, which may be considerably reduced by adopting the suggestions of Col. Albert; although a greater sum than this has already been expended on many of the harbors of the Lakes. Congress can not but allow the feasibility and need of improving our harbor, though they have not hitherto granted us an appropriation. We look forward confidently for justice at their hands.—*Pt. "Mysterious Influences."

The Commercial, which is great on humbugs, has discovered a new one in connection with the recent canvass. It quotes our remark, that "if the same influences prevailed elsewhere, which "wrought so good a work in this region, Mr. Farwell's present majority would be increased "rather than diminished," and calls upon us to state what those "mysterious influences" were to which we referred. Without, however, giving us a chance to reply to this query, it answers it itself in this wise:

We are reluctantly impelled into the belief, then, that the Sentinel is correct, and that "influences" have been brought to bear "in this region," against which party and personalities are powerless, against which an arm of flesh cannot prevail—"influences" that outweigh all considerations which bind men to political organizations, to established political principles, to parties and men with whom they have acted for years. Money, no doubt, was freely used, but 2000 voters are not to be bought and sold. "Influences," then, more powerful than gold, than political principles or party organization have been freely at work.—We condemn it, not for the result, but for the fact, and the future trouble, misfortunes, crimes, and perhaps BLOOD, which are to flow from the imprudent, not to say criminal exercise of those hidden and mysterious "influences." More hereafter.

"Don't be dreadful!" neighbor, and we will tell you, in strict confidence, all about these "influences." There was no gunpowder plot, or "blood and thunder" about them, we do assure you—nothing in fact but the "hidden and mysterious" operations of the Sublime order of the "Thousand and One." This ancient fraternity took the field in full force and were "alive and kicking" all through the contest. Not having the honor of being one of the initiated, we cannot say with certainty on which side they kicked; but, judging from the result, they must have helped, materially, to "hoist" the Don.

The Grand Seignior, whom we observed in town yesterday, can doubtless give our inquiring friends of the Commercial full information on this mysterious subject. We shall look, with interest, for their "more hereafter."

The Volkshalle and the Commercial.

Now that the election is over, and nothing to be made by any further abuse of the Volkshalle, or misrepresentation of its editor, the Commercial is disposed to "kiss and make friends" with its new German contemporary, and indeed with pretty much everybody except the Sentinel. Its grief against us is still too fresh and too severe to admit of immediate cure. Hence, in its very attempt to smooth over its slanders upon the Volkshalle, it seeks to make the Sentinel in some way responsible for them. We quote a few paragraphs of the Commercial's article:

In the heat of the melee, thanks to the dishonest efforts and the treacherous advice of the Sentinel, Mr. Roeser, editor of the Volkshalle, imagined that we had attacked his honor, and traduced his motives. The Sentinel garbled our articles, extended an officious and insolent patronage over the Volkshalle, and succeeded in imposing on its editor, whose honest credulity was unsophisticated by a lengthy acquaintance with the duplicate course and professions of the Sentinel.

This is highly complimentary to Mr. Roeser's intelligence. The Commercial would fain make out that, but for our interpretation of its article, the Volkshalle would have found no cause of offence in it. Let us assure the Commercial, that Mr. Roeser is quite competent to read, interpret and answer its articles for himself, without any assistance, or "advice" from us.

The Commercial further protests that it meant nothing, after all, in its imputations against the Volkshalle. It now declares thus:

With this view, and this alone, we spoke of the Volkshalle, as we did. We said that it had been "bought," as we would say that any newspaper establishment, or a stock of goods, had been bought. We never intimated, insinuated, or hinted that the editor, Mr. Roeser, has been hired, to advocate any set of measures or men.

Here is what the Commercial did say on Monday morning last, which the reader is requested to compare with the above averment:

The Volkshalle begins to show itself in its true colors. Is it not the special organ of Mr. Farwell, and the offspring and tool of German land agents and speculators in this city? And how does it treat the Irish People among us? Look at the last number of that bought-up concern, for the proof.

It strikes us that the Commercial's text, before election, and its interpretation thereof afterwards, are two very distinct things. But if its explanation is satisfactory to the Volkshalle, it certainly is to us, and there we leave the matter.

"Tickle me Toddy &c."—The Commercial of yesterday copies from the Minesota Democrat and parades with great complacency, the following elaborate puff of its senior editor:

We are right glad to see that the name of our old friend, John A. Bryan, at the head of a democratic press again. For many years he held a distinguished rank among the democrats of Ohio. He has filled, with honor, several important offices, and is one of the ablest writers in the United States. We congratulate the Democracy of Wisconsin on their acquisition of his valuable aid.

The "democracy" hereabouts are by no means in the mood, just now, to reciprocate these congratulations! The Commercial, however, as in duty bound, "sets up" the Minesota editor, good and strong, in return for his dose of soft soap.

Acknowledgment.—We return our thanks to our whig friends in different portions of the adjoining counties and the state generally, who have aided us in making up the returns of the election. We have not always given them in the form in which they have been sent, but have incorporated them in our tables. Our friends will please consider us ready to reciprocate their favors.

Assemblymen in Waukesha Co.—We are sorry to be obliged to announce the failure of our whig friends to elect Messrs. Davis and Smith to the Assembly. They polled a noble vote, but our last figures defeat the former by 4 and the latter by 5 votes.

Two good whigs, Messrs. Worthington and Stevens, are elected from the Summit and Delafield Districts.

Land Limitation.

At the Second Ward Democratic Assembly Convention of Milwaukee, held for the nomination of Assemblyman, a resolution condemning the principles of Land Limitation was introduced and on the motion to adopt, voted down by thirty-two votes for the Resolution, and fifty-one against it. Land Reform seems to be looking up there.—Waukesha Democrat.

Why did'nt you give the whole vote cast at the caucus? Land Limitation does'nt stand the ghost of a chance there.

Fox River Steamers.—The steamer John Mitchell, has been purchased by Messrs. Barstow & Kelsey, of Montello.

The Oshkosh has gone to the Portage to try and get through to the Mississippi. She has gone into the hands of new owners, who intend her for the Upper Mississippi trade.

☞ Whenever the whigs have gone before the people with a chart of their policy, they have been signally defeated.—Madison Argus.

Our friends in Madison seem to have understood whig principles, as represented by Mr. Farwell, and didn't suffer much of a defeat either.

For the Presidency.—The Washington County Blade comes to us very much improved in appearance and has the name of Senator Douglass at the head of its columns for the Presidency.—We notice also that "F. W. H." of Cedarburg, writes to the Madison Argus in the same vein.

Ordination.—Rev. Nathan C. Chapin was ordained last Sabbath in the Congregational church of Watertown. Mr. C. is a brother of Pres't Chapin, of Beloit College, formerly pastor of the 1st Presbyterian church of this city.

All Aboard.—The staunch steamer Globe, will leave this evening at 8 o'clock, for Buffalo.

THE GREAT RESULT!

The returns received last night put the issue of the election in this State beyond a doubt. Mr. Farwell, the Whig candidate is elected Governor, by a decisive majority; more likely to exceed, than to fall short of two thousand. There is also every probability of a Whig majority in the Legislature. We have only time this morning, to state the facts, and refer our readers for the detail, to the eloquent figures subjoined. They tell their own story.

Good for the North!

We have reports from Dodge and Fond du Lac Counties which promises gloriously. We have carried one, if not both the Assemblymen in Fond du Lac, and three perhaps all five, of the Assemblymen in Dodge! Whig Senators are also reported as elected in the Dodge and Fond du Lac Districts! On the Governor ticket, reports put Farwell ahead in both Counties, and the details we have received leave little doubt of the fact.

RESULT IN THE STATE.

We correct our table of yesterday, and add to it whatever further returns we received up to the time of going to press:

Babcock, whig, for Senator, is elected in Erie county, by a large majority.

Common Council.—The Board had no quorum yesterday afternoon, and adjourned to this evening at 7 o'clock.

Parodi's Second Concert.—The Second Concert given in our City by Parodi and her distinguished Companions, drew another brilliant and discriminating audience in Gardiner's Hall, and afforded the most unalloyed gratification. All the artists were loudly applauded, and Parodi and Strakosch were encored in every piece. The enthusiasm of the audience seemed to know no bounds. No Troupe ever visited our City that has made so favorable an impression. They left here, yesterday, for Racine and Chicago

A Complete Stock.—Amidst the confusion incident to the preparation of Election returns, we did not find time to call attention to Storm and Brother's advertisement of their large and select stock of dry goods and groceries. The very numerous old patrons of the house need no words from us, but we may say to others that they are sure of always finding articles just as they are represented, just as they wish, and of being served with courtesy and despatch. As for prices, all of our merchants sell for a mere "consideration.

Young Men's Association.—We are requested to give notice that there will be a meeting of the Directors of the Y. M. Association at their rooms in Martin's Block this evening at 7½ o'clock.

Important business will come before them, and a full attendance is expected.

Arrival of the Cherokee!!

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA

$2,200,000 in Gold.

ELECTION NEWS.

New York, Nov. 1.

The steamship Cherokee arrived this afternoon at 5½ o'clock. The California dates are to Oct. 1st. She brings an immense number of passengers and $2,200,000 in gold dust.

The general news from California is unimportant. The country remains quiet and crime is so seldom heard of that a general feeling of security pervades the community. Trade is comparatively dull, yet the mines were never doing better. The fall trade is looked forward to with confidence.—The value of real estate is improving, although money is a little tight. The country wears a general feature of prosperity. The amount of real and personal property possessed by the city of San Francisco at the present time is $171,73[illegible],000

The Oregon, from San Francisco to Panama, took $2,000,000 of gold on her manifest.

A terrible riot was reported to have occurred at Chagres between the natives and returning Californians. Many persons are said to have been killed. A passenger by the Cherokee reports some thirty or forty natives killed and a number of Californians. Adams & Co's messenger, with all their dispatches was left behind, and it is feared that he was killed by the natives.

Returns from the late election show majorities for all the candidates of the Democratic ticket, ranging from one to five thousand. John Bigler is elected Governor by about 1,500 majority.—Messrs Marshal and McCorkle are elected to Congress by heavy majorities. Maj. Roman, democratic candidate for Treasurer, leads his ticket, having already 5,700 over Burt, his competitor.—With the exception of the vote on Governor nearly every county in the State gives a majority for the democratic ticket. The Legislature is strongly democratic in both branches.

Returns from nearly all the counties in the State have been received and footed up. They show majorities for all the candidates on the democratic ticket, ranging from 1055 to 8955.

The following is the aggregate on the State ticket as far as received:

Governor,	Bigler, dem.	22,47[illegible]
	Reading, whig,	21,332
	Bigler's maj.	1,14[illegible]
Lieut. Gov.	Purdy dem.	22,91[illegible]
	Baldwin, whig,	19,173
	Purdy's maj.	3,74[illegible]
Congress	Marshall, dem.	23,484
	Kewen, whig,	20,361
	Marshall's maj.	3,124
	McCorkle, dem.	23,32[illegible]
	Moore, whig,	18,69[illegible]

The Oregon papers give painful accounts of the attack of Indians on the emigrants.

The steamer New Orleans sailed from San Francisco Oct. 1st. with passengers, freight and specie for Panama. She was to touch at San Juan Del Sud.

The Cherokee brings a very large mail.

The Vigilance Committee is exerting its efforts to prevent immigration of convicts, especially from France, which seems to be threatened.

The accounts from the Southern Mines are very promising. On the Tuolumne, operations have been carried on with a great deal of spirit. The mines at Talcottville have also done well.

Accounts from the Whaling fleet are more disastrous than those previously received—15 vessels are known to have totally lost.

There is a large quantity of goods still thrown into the auction of San Francisco, and holders evince great anxiety to realize. 30 days paper is negociated at 7 to 8 per cent per month.

Business at Stockton remains without material change.

Dates from Oregon by the Cherokee are to Sept. 23. There is still a difficulty as regards the location of the Capital.

The prices of travel and freight on the Oregon Rivers have been reduced competition.

The schooner John Allvin arrived at Oregon City on the 19th, from the Sandwish Islands, with a cargo of Syrup, Sugar and Salt. She is the first in the trade.

A Company of Oregon miners had returned from Scott's River with $27,000.

From Washington.

New York, Nov. 1—2 P. M.

The Herald's Washington private correspondence says dispatches have been received at the Navy Department from Com. Morgan, together with private letters from highly respectable Americans abroad, which are calculated to dampen the enthusiasm in behalf of Kossuth. The dispatches will be laid before Congress by the President, by the earliest opportunity.

A correspondent of the Courier and Enquirer, writing also from Washington, states that the Spanish Government exhibits additional anxiety, in its despatches by the last steamer, to obtain satisfaction for the injuries inflicted upon its Consul at New Orleans. It is thought that when this satisfaction is given the American prisoners, now in Spain, will be released.

The writer also says it is understood at Washington, that no appointment of Minister to France, to succeed Mr. Rives, will be made during the present Administration, unless our relations with that country should assume such a shape as to require one. In the meantime, Mr. Sanford, the Secretary of Legation, will perform the duties of the Embassy.

Private advices in Washington indicate that the leading Southern Whigs will vote down any such ultra resolutions as those recently proposed by Gov. Brown, of Florida.

Decision in the Telegraph Case.

In the U. S. Court this morning, Judge Kane gave his decision in the telegraph case, sustaining the claims of Morse throughout, and against Bain. The decision was given in favor of Morse on all points, and establishes the fact that he is solely entitled to the art of the instantaneous record of messages at a distance. The case will be taken up to the Supreme Court.

Later from Mexico—Attack on Matamoras.

New Orleans, Nov. 2.

The steamer Fanny has arrived, with Matamoras dates to the 30th October. At that time, the insurgents, under Caravajal, had obtained possession of the western portion of the city, up to within four blocks of the Plaza; but the Government troops being well provided with artillery still held out. The loss of the Mexicans was 150 killed and wounded. Gen. Avelas is among the latter.

The insurgents loss was three killed and fifty wounded. Among the latter is Capt. Ford, of the Texan Rangers. Mr. Wardwell, the American Consul, was also wounded, and Mr. Longstreet, an American merchant, was killed.

Two large fires had occurred in the city, with which the custom house, with all its contents, and several blocks, were totally destroyed.

Boston, Oct. 31.

The New Hampshire free soil Convention met at Manchester yesterday. Alonzo Smith was chosen President with 10 Vice Presidents. John Atwood of New Boston, was nominated for Governor, receiving 197 out of 213 votes cast. No nomination was made for Lieut. Governor.

Boston, Oct. 31.

Robert Morris, the colored lawyer, was put on trial this morning in the District Court, for aiding the Shadrack rescue.

Judge Curtis refused a motion of the Defendant's council to have the case tried in the Circuit Court. Morris is defended by Hon. J. P. Hale, and R. H. Dana, Jr.

The old line Democrats in Essex Co. held their convention in Salem yesterday. They repudiated the coalition, and nominated delegates to the Baltimore Convention, also a Senatorial ticket.

Baltimore, October 31.

Mr. Botts, of Va., has issued a patriotic and eloquent address announcing his retirement from public life, in consequence of his recent defeat in a whig district, as candidate for Congress. Personal animosity appears to have been the moving cause of this defeat. Mr. B. says in private life he shall do all in his power for the triumph of the whig cause.

New York, Nov. 3.

Yesterday, at 2 o'clock P. M., an attempt at suicide was made in Trinity Church yard, by an old gentleman. He was discovered by one of the Day Police, just as he was adjusting the knot of a silk handkerchief, which he had previously attached to a tree. From papers found on his person, it appears that his name is Wm. Emmons, of Boston, and that he had been for several years the private Secretary to Judge Woodbury. He is evidently insane.

New York, Oct. 31.

An injunction was granted by Judge Edwards and has been served on our Mayor and street Commissioner enjoining them not to make any contracts for the contemplated enlargement of the battery.

To Mariners—The Grand River, Michigan, Times is informed that the late storms have carried into the lake, the point or bluff at the mouth of the river, taking away acres of land where the Range Lights stood. The channel will be designated by a light ranging with the Lighthouse, for the remainder of the season.

Sale of the Buckeye State.—This steamer has been sold to Capt. S. Isaacs and A. R. Conn of Buffalo.

Disasters on the Lakes.

Loss of the Prop. St. Joseph.—The propeller St. Joseph—with a full load of goods for the Upper Lakes—went ashore Wednesday night last, 6 miles below Thunder Bay Island. She is three feet out of water on a sandy beach, and exposed only to S. S. E. winds The vessel does not leak, and there are strong hopes of saving the cargo uninjured. We learn these facts from Mr. Chester, agent, to whom the engineer was sent down.—Det. Adv.

Cleveland, Nov. 3.

Steamer Empire State Sunk.—The Str. Empire State has arrived. She struck the pier, and is sunk in the river.

Collision.—We learn that the steamer Ohio and sch'r Oneida came in contact off Black River Point, last night, by which the Oneida sustained sufficient damage to fill her, but being loaded with lumber did not sink. The Ohio had her upper works damaged considerably. She towed the Oneida into Cleveland.—Buffalo Com.

☞ Some fifteen vessels from the upper lakes, bound to Oswego, were driven past on Thursday and Friday, of last week—among them, says the Times, the brig Shakspeare. The clerk of the Bay State reports her at Sackets Harbor on Saturday.—Ibid.

☞ The steamer Great Western, Goldsmith, arrived yesterday morning from the wreck of the steamer Atlas, bringing a portion of her cargo. Capt. G. reports that it is hardly probable that anything can be done with the vessel. They succeeded in pumping out about two feet of water, but could lower it no farther. If the gale of yesterday did not disturb the wreck, some more of her cargo may perhaps be saved in a damaged state.—Ibid.

☞ The schooner Maria Hilliard came in this morning with her sails damaged by the gale. The schooner entered protest. She is from Chicago, with a cargo of wheat, and struck on Horse Shoe Reef, Niagara river, causing her to leak badly.—Ibid.

☞ The brig J. R. Giddings, O'Connor, arrived to-day with a cargo of corn, in six days from Chicago—one of the quickest trips on record.—Ibid.

THE TAIL OF THE COMET

IS forty degrees in length, but so thin in substance that stars are visible through it. The marvellous tales of some nostrum-mongers are nearly as long, and quite as easily seen through.

The proprietor of Dr. Guysott's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, however, has no occasion to resort to such tales in order to attract public attention.

The actual cures performed by the article, wherever it is introduced, is the basis upon which the reputation of this remedy is founded, as the hundreds of certificates of renewed hopes, health, and life, that are continually flowing in upon him, will prove.

☞ Humbugs may flourish for a time, but a remedy must possess rare medicinal virtues, to establish the reputation that Dr. Guysott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla has established wherever it has been used.

General Emigration and Foreign Exchange

AGENCY.

NEW-YORK: W. & J. T. Tapscott & Co., 86 South Street.
LIVERPOOL: W. Tapscott & Co., St. George's Buildings.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR 1851.

AS the season for emigration approaches, we beg to acquaint our friends and the public with our Arrangements for the year 1851, and would inform them, that with an increase of business—for which we are grateful—we are placed in possession of greater facilities for conducting the Emigration and Foreign Exchange Business than any other House in the World, and for which—in a great measure—we have to thank a discerning public for their continued patronage.

Since the commencement of last year a large number of magnificent ships have been added to the various popular lines for which we are the Agents, and several others are now in course of construction, all of which will be fitted up for passengers in the most superior manner, and commanded by men of long experience.

By the following List of Packets, and their dates of sailing—being six regular packets a month to and from Liverpool—four, to and from London—and two to and from Glasgow—persons sending for their friends, or those proceeding to the "Old Country," will perceive it much to their advantage to make arrangements at our office; and as heretofore, our business in Liverpool will be under the personal superintendence of our Mr. W. TAPSCOTT—whose well known care and attention to passengers embarking by our line has won for him his present high reputation among the emigrating public.

During the past year our Liverpool House have dispatched, in addition to the above extensive list of packets, the following well known ships, and in order to meet the wants of the emigrating public, they will continue to select such other first class vessels as may be required during the year 1851—viz:

Pamphlets with full descriptions of all the routes, with rates of fare for any place on the American continent—including California—can be had gratis. Every information given on application, either personally or by letter, addressed to

JOHN DWIGHT & CO'S
SODA SALÆRATUS

MAY be found at the Sugar Warehouse of Goodrich & Hunter, No. 42 East water-st.

The attention of the public is called to this article as being superior to Pearlash Saleratus in its effect—giving cookery a more delicate appearance and flavor; and also as more wholesome—Soda being more congenial to the human system than Potash. It is more economical than Pearlash Saleratus—a less quantity being required to produce the same effect. The article is put up in pound papers with full directions for use.

Also may be found, John Dwight & Co.'s

Washing & Cleansing Powders,

which will be found, on trial, a very superior article, saving much labor of washing Clothes, &c. It will soften hard water. To Engineers and Machinists it is invaluable for removing grease from Machinery and other iron works, leaving the iron perfectly dry, and not liable to rust.

Directions for use are printed on each package.

STATE FAIR.

CRANE'S PATENT SOAP took the FIRST PREMIUM at the State Fair at Janesville; also at the State Fair of the State of New York, and at the Great Fair of the American Institute. OF COURSE IT DID, because it is the BEST SOAP IN USE. If any are still skeptical, let them read the following—the names to which might be indefinitely extended—and then try it for themselves, and if it don't succeed, they don't follow the directions:—

"We have used CRANE'S PATENT SOAP in our families for the past eight months, and pronounce it FULLY EQUAL to its recommendations. We do not discover that it injures clothing in the least. It is the cheapest soap in use. We should not willingly do without it.

In offering our Stoves to the community, we do so with the full assurance that we can supply better article than can be purchased at any other place, being entirel new patterns, manufactured with care and from the very best materials. The following list of patterns is offered with the confidence that they will give satisfaction in every particular, viz:

THE ECONOMIST
Double Oven Cooking Stove,
(Which received the First Premium at the State Fair, lately held at Janesville,)

Possesses great advantages over every other stove, for plain flues and direct application of heat, being so arranged that one or both ovens can be used at pleasure. It will cook in half the time of any other stove now in use, and will half the fuel, not consuming over four cords of wood in one year.

The TRIUMPH, single oven, takes in long wood is an excellent stove—one that has been well tested, and given general satisfaction.

The PREMIUM is different in its construction from any other made, in the arrangement of the fire back—acknowledged to be a great improvement.

The JUNO PARLOR is adapted to either wood or coal, being decidedly the neatest arrangement ever offered to the public, having all the convenience of the stove combined with the beauties of the open grate. It is beautifully ornamental, highly finished, and perfect in every respect—the entire front above and below the grate being open or closed with three doors, and so arranged that when open they are completely out of sight. It is equally adapted to offices as well as parlors.

The RADIATOR is the best coal stove ever got up as a receiver of heat.

Persons purchasing their stoves of us, in the event of any of the plates getting broke, can at all times be supplied with extra ones, thus superceding the necessity of throwing away stoves, which many are daily compelled to do in buying Eastern ware.

Those who are in want of an article in our line, will find it to their advantage to give us a call, before purchasing elsewhere, as we are confident that we can give satisfaction in all cases. City references given, where our stoves can be seen in operation. Stoves delivered and set up in any part of the city, free of charge. All orders promptly attended to.

TAKE NOTICE!
PATENT BEDSTEAD.

THE undersigned now offer to the public a new article of Bedsteads, entitled "HINKLEY'S PATENT SUSPENSION BED BOTTOM AND FASTENING," which possesses, as they believe, a decided superiority over every other kind now in use.

The advantages of this Patent are, first, the elasticity of its spring, the simplicity and durability of its structure, and what is of far greater importance, these Bedsteads are "BUG PROOF." For these reasons, it is believed to be not only the best, but the cheapest Bedstead that can be used!

In commending its advantages, the proprietors only repeat the statement of competent persons in this city, and elsewhere, who have had the best opportunity of judging of its merits.

FACTS WILL ALWAYS SHOW

and when we say that one firm in New York (Troy) manufactured and altered over [under this Patent] TWELVE THOUSAND Bedsteads within two years, and that in the eastern cities,

ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND

Have been made and altered, we tell nothing but the truth, and exemplify the advantage, luxury and economy of this Patent over all others now or heretofore in use. These Bedsteads have been adopted at the Astor House, N. York; Troy House, Troy; Mansion House, Troy; Irving House, Troy; Marvin's U. S. Hotel, Saratoga; Globe Hotel, Syracuse; Blossom's Hotel, Rochester; U. S. Hotel, Buffalo; Burnet House, Cincinnati; American House, Massillon, O.; Neil House, American House, Capital House, U. S. Hotel, Buckeye Hotel, Columbus, O.

This patent received the

at the late Fair of Rensselaer county, N. Y.; New York, Albany; State Fair, Erie county, Buffalo; Boston, Mass. State Fair; Wayne county, O., Stark county, O., and numerous others.

MILLARD, HOLTON & CO., Proprietors of the above Patent, may be found at the Furniture Warehouse of J. F. Birchard, No. 21 Spring-st., 3 doors east of the American House, Milwaukee, where applications for Rights of Towns or Counties will be promptly attended to.

Persons wishing to have their bedsteads remodied on the above plan, will please leave their names with Mr. Birchard, at the above named place, where they will meet with prompt attention. These Bottoms are considered preferable for Lounges or Trundle Beds, and will be inserted for the sum of $1,25.

In conclusion, we are free to state to a discerning public that after giving these above Bed Bottoms a fair trial, they will award to the merit of our covering the good qualities of the "Patent Suspension Bed Bottom," and we confidently look for a liberal encouragement from a common sense public.

MILLARD, HOLTON & CO.

P. S. Any person infringing on the above Patent, will be prosecuted according to law.

A New and Valuable Improvement in Bedsteads.

We, the undersigned, citizens of Milwaukee, having examined "Hinkley's Patent Suspension Bed Bottom," now being introduced into this city by Millard & Co., pronounce it superior in all respects, to any thing of the kind that we have heretofore known either in this or any other State. Its superiority over all others consists in the elasticity of its spring, the simplicity and durability of its structure, and what is of far greater importance, these Bedsteads are "Bug proof."

We feel, too, that for cheapness, it does not cost any more than the common wood screw, (the expense of the cord and sacking bottom being saved) and for practical utility, must in fact supersede all kinds heretofore used. We would therefore cheerfully recommend it to the citizens of Milwaukee, and the public generally.

Troy Fire Insurance Company
TROY, WALWORTH COUNTY, WIS.
CAPITAL $100,000.

The Directors feel grateful to the public for having thus early manifested their approval of and confidence in this Company. After having been in operation ten months, we are able to report as follows:

Whole number of Policies issued,. . . . . 9[illegible]
Whole amount of Property insured,. . $625,[illegible]
Whole amount of Cash premium,. . . . . . . .5214 [illegible]
Whole amount of losses allowed and paid, 371 [illegible]
Balance of Cash Premium on hand,. . . . . . . 484[illegible]

IT is gratifying to the Directors to state to the members of this Company, that the business has more than met their expectations, and is rapidly increasing. This unparalleled success in the commencement, and increase of business, show that our plan and management meets with the approval of the public.

The Charter and Bye-Laws are free from objections, and provide that the risks shall be divided into two distinct departments, and the premium notes in one shall not be liable for losses in the other. The only risks taken in the Farmer's Department are on farm property, detached dwellings, country churches, school houses, tailor's shoemakers and saddlers' shops. No hazardous risks will be taken in either department, nor more than $2,500 in one risk, or a circle of eight rods.

The company possess both the advantages of the Stock and Mutual plan. Any person insuring may pay once and one-half the regular cash premium in full, without a premium note. Stoves may be added or changed, outbuildings erected, if fifty feet from dwelling, and such additions and repairs made as do not increase the hazard, without notifying the company. The Company will be responsible for the correctness of surveys taken by their Agents, and insurance may take effect on the day the application is made.

The Company pays, in case fire, the full amount of damage not exceeding the amount insured, and all matters of difference may be settled by arbitration in the county where the loss occurs.

The rates charged by this company, though low, are based upon the actual cost of insurance for the past twenty years, and are found to be sufficient, with prudent management, to pay all losses and expenses without ever resorting to the premium notes; thus the rates on cheap dwellings and farm property, are a premium note of [illegible] per cent, and a cash premium of fifty cents on each $1[illegible] for five years.

In publishing our safe, cheap, and popular plan of insurance, we deem it a duty to ourselves and the public to state a few existing facts with the Washington and Montgomery:—

The Washington County Mutual commenced in 18[illegible], collecting thirty cents on $100; in 18[illegible] they [illegible] ed that this was insufficient to pay losses, and [illegible] cents, and now are collecting 50 cents on each [illegible] worth of which is, by their report, Jan. 1, 1850, [illegible] the treasury, and 66 million at risk, on which they will probably lose two hundred thousand, making the [illegible] 191 thousand.

The Montgomery County Mutual is another example of bad management. They have been in operation a short time longer than the Washington, and their report shows what the Washington is fast coming to. They reported to the Comptroller, Jan. 1, 1850, that their losses and expenses had exceeded their cash receipts twenty-nine thousand dollars, and fifteen thousand dollars claims unsettled, making debts and claims forty-four thousand dollars, and some thirty millions at risk, on which they will probably lose ninety thousand dollars more, making their actual debt one hundred and thirty-four thousand dollars.

The cash premiums now collected by these two companies on what they insure in future will only pay losses on the same, consequently those insuring with them now not only pay for their insurance, but assume a portion of these enormous debts, which must be raised by tax. These companies are unpopular in New York, and are compelled to wander in the Valley of the Mississippi where they are not so well known for business. Arch. Bishop and Lester Wilcox may publish, as heretofore, their firm belief that no tax will ever be necessary, but the figures are the things to judge from.

Since the above reports, the Montgomery have levied a tax on their premium notes.

Now we would ask the public candidly, which of these three companies it is to their interest to insure in; the Washington, and assume a debt of $191,000, the Montgomery, and assume a debt of $134,000, or of the Troy, with an increasing cash fund sufficient to pay all losses and expenses without ever resorting to a tax?
